ORDER APPOINTING COUNSEL PURSUANT TO THE
CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACT FOR MATERIAL WITNESS
REGULU RAMIREZ-DUARTE

This Court has determined that the above-named Material Witness be appointed representation in the above-styled case. Accordingly, this Court makes the following appointment pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act (18 U.S.C. § 3006A):

APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

The Federal Public Defender is appointed as counsel for the defendant.

Natalie Fletcher, a member of the Criminal Justice Act Panel of this District, is appointed as counsel.

This Court determines that the defendant shall reimburse the Government for all attorney fees and costs incurred due to the appointment of counsel for his defense.

This Court determines that the defendant may have funds to contribute to the cost of appointed counsel. The United States Attorney shall investigate to determine if funds exist and submit a report to the Court outlining the amount and method of payment in which defendant should be required to pay toward his defense.

TYPE OF APPOINTMENT

<input type="checkbox"/> Through trial and notice of appeal.	Probation/Supervised Release Violation.
<input type="checkbox"/> All purposes including trial and appeal.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Material/Grand Jury Witness.
<input type="checkbox"/> Initial appearance and bond only.	<input type="checkbox"/> Parole Violation.
<input type="checkbox"/> Appeal purposes only.	<input type="checkbox"/> Mental Hearing (18 U.S.C. § 313).
<input type="checkbox"/> Habeas Corpus.	<input type="checkbox"/> Rule 5(c) Proceedings in this District.
Defendant is not eligible for appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A, but he is entitled to an immediate hearing and it is in the interest of justice that the defendant be afforded the assistance of counsel; so the Federal Defender is temporarily appointed for that purpose.

It is SO ORDERED and SIGNED this 24th day of July 2018.

K. Nicole Mitchell, U.S. Magistrate Judge
